Child labour and young workers

We cannot accept the employment of children. The minimum age of employment shall not be less than the age of completion of compulsory schooling and in any case not less than 15 years (14 years in some developing countries). Where national law permits it, children between the age of 12 and 15 may perform a few hours of light work per day. The work must not interfere with the children's education. For young workers below the age of 18 special precautions are taken to protect them against accidents and damage to their health.

Working hours

We strive to offer a safe working environment for all employees. Adequate health and safety procedures are implemented. As a minimum, we comply with all local and national health and safety legislation in the countries in which we operate.

Workplace violence

We protect employees in the working place against physical, verbal, sexual or psychological harassment, abuse or threats.

Environment

We strive to minimise the environmental impact of our activities through responsible management, widespread environmental awareness and the use of technologies with low environmental impact. We recognise that prevention rather than cure is a more cost-effective approach to avoid environmental damage.

Corruption

Our businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.
